

Kevin Thomas

Education

University of Texas, Austin
School of Civil Engineering
1976-1979

Austin Community College
Computer Programming
1988

Experience

- Twenty years experience as an Engineering Technician using AutoCAD and other engineering computer programs for the production of drawings for all phases of golf course, residential, retail and commercial subdivision developments..
- Preparation of construction plans for public and private golf course improvements, including calculation of earthwork quantities using Digital Terrain Modeling methods, preparation of grading plans, water, wastewater, drainage and road improvements plans.
- Preparation of construction plans for residential subdivision, including final plat and utility and road construction plans.
- Preparation of construction plans for commercial subdivision, including final plat and utility and road construction plans.
- Preparation of plans for utility construction.
- System Manager for all computer equipment, printers, plotters, modems and other devices.

